

STORY PLAN WORKSHEET

The Big Idea

Write a one paragraph summary of your story. This is for your eyes only, so just write and don't edit yourself.

Characters

List your characters here. All of them. If you create a new one while you are writing, add him or her here so you have a complete reference of all the characters in your story.

Settings

Think about the locations that impact your story and list them here. Update this list as needed while you write.

STORY PLAN WORKSHEET

Ready? Take your big idea and split it into three. Note what needs to happen in each section of your story. If you need more help with these steps, please check out How to Write Fan Fiction for further instruction.

The Beginning

This is where you start. Your set up. Where we meet your characters and you introduce your conflict.

The Middle

This is where everything goes to hell in a handbasket. Ask yourself what is the worst thing that could happen to my characters that they could survive. Start writing there.

The End

The end is where your characters either achieve their goals or fail miserably. A great end demonstrates how your characters have been changed by their experiences.
